

Cancun

Cancun is located northeast of the Yucatan Peninsula, in the north side of the State of Quintana Roo and 533 miles southeast of Miami, Florida. The accessibility to Cancun is easy, due the Cancun International Airport is the second most important in Mexico, after the Mexico City International Airport. Cancun has a great location, due by highway is only 45 minutes from Playa del Carmen, 90 minutes from Tulum and 2 hours 15 minutes from Chichen Itza, in the State of Yucatan. There are two different faces of Cancun:

Cancun Hotel Zone

The Cancun Hotel Zone has 17 miles in length and traced by the Kukulcan Boulevard, where most of the recognized hotel brands, modern malls and sophisticated discos with the best performances are found. The Cancun Hotel Zone is surrounded by the Mexican Caribbean in the east side with white sand beaches and the Nichupte Lagoon in the west.

Cancun Downtown

The northern end of Kukulcan Boulevard leads to the heart of Downtown Cancun, where you will find a provincial and urban flavor, with markets, grocery stores, shopping malls with cinemas and outdoor cafes and fun bars. In this area is where most of the Cancun Hotel Zone workers live and the people are so friendly.

Cancun has at least 120 hotels and around 28,000 rooms and 300 restaurants, which make that your stay fulfills the highest expectations that quality had made of this site to be ranked between the best tourist places around the world. Most of the five-star and grand tourism hotels category have meeting facilities for Conventions or Congresses. In fact, Cancun has their own Convention Center for this type of events, The Cancun Center.

Thanks to their physic features, in Cancun the water activities are very fun and popular during day, with visits to Isla Mujeres by sailing boats or catamarans. The sunset in the lagoon side has precious sceneries for a romantic dinner; do not go way this opportunity to be engaged or to get married. Restaurants from the Mexican flavor to the exuberant Mediterranean Cuisine, Argentinean Steak and Caribbean Seafood can be enjoyed in the destination.

If you are searching for calm, peaceful days to enjoy the sun and the sand and unforgettable experiences in the Mexican Caribbean from the sunrise to the sunset and beyond...Cancun will be waiting for you, no matter if you come for business, leisure or both, Cancun is the right destination for singles, couples, families or to get married.
